Peter Bauhuis, Munich

said to be ROMAN, but?
or Armillaria, arithmeticians and other amazements

Thursday 5th February 2015, 5.30 pm
RMIT University
Swanston Academic Building
427-433 Swanston Street
Building 80, Level 2, Room 7

Peter Bauhuis lives and works in Munich, making jewellery, objects, books and exhibitions. He trained as a jeweller and studied at the Munich Academy for Fine Arts with Otto Künzli. Peter has exhibited widely and won numerous awards and prizes, including the 2013 prestigious prize of the International Silver Triennial in Hanau, Germany and his work can be seen in public collections in Europe, the USA and Australia.